

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY
WASHINGTON
COLLEGE OF LAW

Vol. 1

Issue 1

September 2014

In this Issue:

- Welcome
- Resources
- Latest Developments
- Speakers Series
- Publications
- Trainings

NIWAP addresses the needs of immigrant women, immigrant children and immigrant victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence, stalking, human trafficking and other crimes by advocating for reforms in law, policy and practice.

NIWAP is a national provider of training, legal and social science research, policy development, and technical assistance to advocates, attorneys, pro bono law firms, law schools, universities, law enforcement, prosecutors, social service and health care providers, justice system personnel, and other professionals who work with immigrant women, children and crime victims. Our work supports for those in the field and in government who work to improve laws, regulations, policies, and practices to enhance legal options and opportunities for immigrant women and children.

NIWAP provides training and technical assistance on a broad range of issues of importance to immigrant women and children, including VAWA immigration and confidentiality, family law, protection orders, public benefits, language access, cultural competency, and access to services, including shelter, transitional housing, health care, and education.

Welcome to our Newsletter!

The National Immigrant Women's Advocacy Project (NIWAP, pronounced new-app) is excited to launch its first newsletter. Through this newsletter, we will share resources and keep you informed on emerging issues affecting immigrant survivors, women, and children. Topics covered in this and future issues include immigration relief, family law, public benefits, access to services, and language access. These materials are designed to help you better serve immigrant crime victims, women and children.

Latest Developments

New Standard for Domestic Violence Victims in Asylum Cases

A recent Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA) decision opened the door to victims of domestic violence being able to receive asylum based on their abusive relationships. The BIA ruling stated that "married women in Guatemala who are unable to leave their relationship" formed a particular social group for the purposes of an asylum claim. The BIA found that this group had two immutable characteristics: their marital status and their gender. For a full summary of this case and the complete opinion, visit the NIWAP web library. Also be sure to check out Chapter 12 on gender-based asylum in our manual Empowering Survivors: Legal Rights of Immigrant Victims of Sexual Assault, which we have updated to include information about the BIA's new ruling. . It is important to note that asylum law is a legally complex process. To pursue a claim of gender-based asylum, first contact an immigration attorney with expertise in immigration options for immigrant victims of crimes. To locate programs with this expertise contact NIWAP at 202- 274-4457 or info@niwap.org.

Resources:

Be Sure to Check out our Web Library:

This Resource Library and Technical Assistance Center provides timely information on a vast array of topics of interest to those working across the country to help immigrant victims, women and children. The NIWAP library contains a wide range of materials, including legislative history, training manuals, toolkits, sample briefs and motions, factsheets, practice tools, research reports, benchcards, tools for law enforcement, and government policies and regulations. This searchable library of resources is designed to be used by OVW grantees and other advocates, attorneys, judges and service providers.

Our Web Library:

For advocates, attorneys, judges, court staff, law enforcement, other professionals, and students assisting immigrant crime victims, women, and children.

niwaplibrary.wcl.american.edu

New Legal Service Corporation (LSC) Regulations Improve Access to Legal Services for Immigrant Crime Victims

LSC amended their regulations in April 2014 to implement the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) 2005 expansions in access to legal services to immigrant crime victims under anti-abuse laws. Immigrant crime victims may receive help that is "directly related to preventing, healing from, ameliorating the effect of, and preventing future abuse." The abuse covered under VAWA 2005 and these regulations includes battering or extreme cruelty, domestic violence, intimate partner violence, child abuse, elder abuse, sexual assault, human trafficking, and U visa criminal activity. Under the anti-abuse pathway to legal services under the new LSC regulations implementing VAWA 2005, immigrant crime victims may receive legal assistance on a wide range of legal matters, related to the prevention of, obtaining relief from, ameliorating the effects of, protection from or escaping abuse. This includes immigration, family law, employment, public benefits, housing, healthcare, abuse & neglect, or other matters connected to the abuse. Once an immigrant has filed for lawful permanent residency, they also qualify for legal representation on additional matters not related to the abuse based on their immigration status. For more information on the new LSC regulations, please see NIWAP's summary.

Speakers Series

NIWAP
National Immigrant Women's
Advocacy Project

We're on Youtube & Twitter:

NIWAP has its own youtube channel. New to an issue? Access NIWAP training videos 24-7. We have posted our recent webinars. Topics include "Training for Advocates and Attorneys on Trauma-Informed Work with Immigrant Women", "Obtaining U Visa Certification from Judges," "An Introduction of Law Enforcement to the U Visa," and "Law Enforcement and Advocates Partnering to Serve Immigrant Crime Victims." These videos are helpful for new and seasoned immigrant advocates, attorneys, law enforcement, judges, court staff, and students. To view other materials from these webinars, visit the NIWAP library for training materials. You can also use our Twitter

NIWAP's first speaker series was September 4 at Washington College of Law. Leslye Orloff and Ronald LeGrand from the U.S. House of Representatives, Committee on the Judiciary introduced students to NIWAP and advertised their exciting seminar course which will offer law students hands-on immigration and policy experience. For more information on the course, check out this flyer. To learn more about upcoming events in our speakers series, follow us on Twitter. For opportunities to volunteer to help out at NIWAP, email us at info@niwap.org.

Recent Publications

- How to Get a Detained Person to Court for Family Court Cases Involving Children and/or Criminal Proceedings- This handout guides judges, attorneys, and advocates on getting detained immigrants to court so they can participate in family court proceedings.
- Access to Publicly Funded Legal Services for Battered Immigrants- This succinctly describes the new Legal Service Corporation regulations promoting legal services for immigrant crime victims under anti-abuse regulations.
- How does VAWA confidentiality operate in a family court context?
- Are courts required to have interpreters for limited English proficiency (LEP) speakers and deaf persons?
- What do the new Legal Services

feed to receive interesting and relevant updates.

Have questions on Immigrant Survivors' Legal Rights?

NIWAP offers technical assistance to advocates, attorneys, social services and health care providers, justice system personnel, and others working with immigrant victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, and human trafficking. To submit your questions, email info@niwap.org or you can call NIWAP at 202-274-4457. Be sure to provide a description of the issue so we can better assist you. Examples of questions we've addressed in the past:

Trainings

NIWAP is pleased to announce that we can bring training to your state! Thanks to a State Justice Institute (SJI) grant, NIWAP is delivering workshops, half day and full day trainings around the country! Trainers include NIWAP's own Leslye Orloff in addition to a team of judges experienced in immigration law cases and staff from the Center for Public Policy Studies. Visit our website for materials from past trainings.

Upcoming Trainings:

- Lanham, Maryland- Sept. 24- "Effective Advocacy for Immigrant Survivors: Immigration Protections, Benefits Access, and Trauma Informed Services"- for more information visit the Maryland Network Against Domestic Violence (MNADV).
- Salt Lake City, Utah- Nov. 20- for Judges- "State Courts and the Protection of Immigrant Crime Victims and Children"

Webinars

- Battered Immigrants and Immigrant Crime Victims' Access to Justice under the New Legal Services Corporation Regulation - date: October 2014 TBD
- VAWA Confidentiality in different Court Contexts- date: December 2014 TBD

New Orleans Conference

NIWAP, in coordination with the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Violence Against Women, hosted a conference August 6-7, 2014 in New Corporation (LSC) regulations mean for crime victims access to justice?

- What public benefits are available to VAWA self-petitioners, U-Visa, and T-Visa applicants? What is the impact of the Affordable Care Act on immigrant access to healthcare?
- What are immigrant's options to attain legal immigration status and protection from deportation?
- What vital documents should my agency and translate and in what language?

Find Professional Resources in your Area via our Directory

Orleans, Louisiana. The conference theme was "Creative Solutions to Strengthen Advocacy Options and Healing for Survivors." The meeting featured plenary sessions on public benefits for immigrant survivors, VAWA confidentiality, the use of trauma-informed care, and judges' perspectives on immigration issues in state court cases. The conference also featured workshops on a range of other topics to encourage specialization and foster conversation on particular issues. Attendees included advocates, attorneys, and justice system personnel, providing an interdisciplinary approach to helping immigrant survivors. Participants were also encouraged throughout the conference to ask any questions they might have about immigration issues, promoting application of conference educational materials to real-life cases. You can access the conference materials and powerpoints online.

NIWAP's web directory offers a nationwide list of programs in your state and community that have expertise working with immigrant victims, women and children. Use our directory to make referrals and find assistance for immigrant crime victims. You can search by location, language, and organization type. Be sure to check that your organization is listed and all of your information is accurate. With your assistance, we can create a comprehensive list of where immigrant victims can turn to for help when in need.

Our Directory:

For immigrants looking to be connected to advocates, attorneys, and organizations.

NIWAP.ORG/DIRECTORY

Get to Know NIWAP

Learn more about the

NIWAP staff:

Leslye Orloff-

Director

Rocio Molina-

Associate Director

Bebe Anver-

Policy Staff Attorney

Levi Wolberg-

Easy Ways to Get Involved and Stay Connected to NIWAP:

1. Contact us for technical assistance at info@niwap.org.
2. Keep an eye out for surveys in future newsletters so you can tell us what is going on in the field.
3. Attend trainings and webinars.

NIWAP
National Immigrant Women's
Advocacy Project

Data Manager
Meaghan Fitzpatrick-
Immigrant Women Law
and Policy Fellow
Spencer Cantrell-
NIWAP Gender Violence
Fellow

Student Corner

NIWAP is a part of the Washington College of Law Community. Consider taking a course taught by NIWAP's founder and director about legislative advocacy. If you're interested in volunteering, email info@niwap.org.

Know anyone interested in learning
more about NIWAP?
Forward them this email or tell them to visit www.niwap.org

© 2014 National Immigrant Women's Advocacy Project. The contents of this publication may be reprinted. Any reprinting must be accompanied by the following acknowledgement: This material was reprinted from the National Immigrant Women's Advocacy Project, American

*University, Washington
College of Law.*

4801 Massachusetts Ave NW, Washington DC 20016

www.NIWAP.org | info@NIWAP.org

202-274-4457